foreWord

The fall of 1960 began an era abounding in opportunities for scholastic achievements, new friendships and social activities for students of Charlotte College. As autumn leaves turned to red and gold, huge machinery was moved to the site and construction was begun on the first two buildings on the new Charlotte College campus. Winter's arrival brought a white blanket of snow and ice which transformed our campus and left memories of snowballs flying and cars slipping and sliding. Spring heralded the completion of the school year, a fond farewell to those graduating and a separation through summer vacations. In this edition of St St we offer you glimpses of the seasons to stir happy memories of the year.

Dedication

For all she has been and is to the students of Charlotte College—and especially to the members of the annual staff—we dedicate the 1961 Si Si to our adviser and friend, Miss MILDRED ENGLISH. Her guidance, understanding, and enthusiastic support have won for her the respect, admiration and affection of the entire student body.
